Headline:
A few showers in the north overnight. Bright tomorrow.

This Evening and Tonight:
A few showers are likely overnight, mostly along the north coast and in Gloucestershire. The cloud will break up this evening, allowing for some clear spells overnight. Windy, particularly along the coasts. A chilly night, with icy conditions possible. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Tuesday:
A dry and bright day for most, with frequent sunny spells in the morning. The odd shower may affect eastern areas during the afternoon. Winds will ease later. Feeling cold. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Dry and cloudy for many on Wednesday. Possible freezing fog on Thursday, though dry and bright for most. Friday will be cloudy and largely dry. Feeling cold throughout.
